Special Rules

1. Rules:

- a. All rules governing livestock in the General Rules and Regulations and Junior Livestock rules apply to this department.
- b. Animals shown in the youth department must have been continuously by the exhibitor not less than 90 consecutive days prior to the opening day of the Fair and must have been declared in writing on Dairy Goat Declaration Day.
 - i. Any exhibitor who wishes to show a dairy goat that has not been born by the day of tagging must register by August 1, 2011 and declare on that day. As soon as they are able to be tattooed, contact the Superintendent to record the tattoo. A NMLB tag must be acquired for the goat as well.
- c. Declarations to show include the classes being entered.
- d. Entries are limited to does and wethers. Bucks are not allowed to show.

- e. Any dairy goats with horns must have those horns tipped to be at least the size of a dime.

2. Entry Regulations:

- All animals must be entered in the name of the owner.
- All entries must be individually tattooed.
- The animal's tattoo must be legible or the entry will be disqualified.
- Dairy goats are not required to be registered.

3. Attire:

- Exhibitors are required to be neatly and appropriately attired. Exhibitors may wear white shirts and denim jeans or dairy colors while exhibiting.

Youth Dairy Goat Show Awards & Classes

Classes may be combined as the Superintendent deems necessary

Showmanship

To be eligible for the Dairy Goat Showmanship competition, the goat being shown must also be shown in the appropriate Dairy Goat Class. The Exhibitor must own the animal.

Judging will be based on Care and fitting of the animal, showmanship ability of the exhibitor, training, conduct in the show ring and exhibitor dress.
